DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on March 6, 2009 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

3. Claims 13, 15, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Plymale et al. (US 3,277,220) in view of Blomdahl et al. (US 6,481,589).

Plymale discloses a container comprising an inner body (2) of polypropylene (col. 4, lines 71-73) and an outer body (3) of a softer material. Plymale is silent regarding the structure of a cover and the outer body material is a rubber material.

Blomdahl teaches it is known to provide a cover (20A) having holes with material of an outer portion (40A) extending therethrough (60A) and forming an inner portion (50A) of the cover.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to apply the teaching of a cover as claimed to the container of Plymale. Doing so provides a container having two materials which allow for sealing the container contents from environmental contaminants while providing indicia.

Art Unit: 3781

4. Claims 13 and 15-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Leboucher (US 6,352,171) in view of Itsubo (JP 63-12459) and Plymale.

Leboucher discloses a container (2) connected to a cover (3) via a hinge (4). Leboucher is silent regarding a composite material forming an outer portion of the container and an inner portion of the cover.

Itsubo teaches it is known to provide a cover of rigid plastic with a softer material extending through holes in the cover and forming an inner portion of the cover for sealing a container.

Plymale discloses a container comprising an inner body (2) of polypropylene (col. 4, lines 71-73) and an outer body (3) of a softer material.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to apply the teaching of a cover as claimed to the container of Plymale. Doing so provides a container having two materials which allow for sealing the container contents from environmental contaminants while providing indicia.

Regarding claim 19, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the hinge assembly on the outer body or the inner body. Doing so allows for making the hinge of either material for the desired construction.

5. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the prior art as applied to claim 13 above, and further in view of Faverio (FR 2,539,968).

Leboucher discloses the claimed container except for the bottom having a raised portion.

Faverio teaches it is known to provide the container with a bottom element having a raised portion.

Art Unit: 3781

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to further apply the teaching of a raised portion to the bottom of the container of Leboucher. Doing so allows for a more flexible bottom portion.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 13-19 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F.R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06 II(A), MPEP 2163.06 and MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Various prior art disclosures teaching features similar to those disclosed and/or claimed are cited for their disclosures.

9. In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, Group 3720/80 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office Actions directly into the Group at (571) 273-8300. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a PTO deposit account. Please identify the examiner and art unit at the top of your cover sheet. Papers submitted via FAX into Group 3720/80 will be promptly forwarded to the examiner.

10. It is called to applicant's attention that if a communication is faxed before the reply time has expired, applicant may submit the reply with a "Certificate of Facsimile" which merely asserts that the reply is being faxed on a given date. So faxed, before the period for reply has expired, the reply may be considered timely. A suggested format for a certificate follows:

I hereby certify that this correspondence for Application Serial No. _____ is being facsimiled to The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office via fax number 571-273-8300 on the date shown below:
